

DEPARTMENT REQUIREMENTS: INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS, COMPARATIVE POLITICS, AND NATIONAL SECURITY.

I. REQUIRED COURSES	Courses	Grade
A. Economics 201 and 202	ECON 201	_____
	ECON 202	_____
B. 3 Hours from the following History Courses History 209, 242, 418, 419, 420, 425, 426, 430, 463, 464.	_____	_____
C. 9 Hours of International Relations Courses Political Science 360, 361, 362, 363, 364, 365, 366, 367, 368, 369, 453 (Strasbourg Program), 461.	_____	_____
D. 3 Hours of Comparative Politics courses on industrial nations. Political Science 350, 351, 352, 353, 357, 452 (Strasbourg Program).	_____	_____
E. 3 Hours of Comparative Politics courses on developing areas Political Science 354, 355, 356, 358, 359.	_____	_____

II. SUB-FIELD REQUIREMENTS

No less than 39 hours are required for graduation; 36 hours must be 200 or above; no more than 42 hours in political science may be counted toward graduation.

	Required Grade	Elective Grade	Elective Grade	Elective Grade
American Government [10s; 20s]	_____ P.S. 102	_____	_____	_____
Public Policy & Admin. [30s; 40s]	_____ P.S. 230/240	_____	_____	_____
Comparative Politics [50s]	_____ P.S. 250	_____	_____	_____
International Relations [60s]	_____ P.S.260	_____	_____	_____
Political Theory [70s]	_____ P.S.270/271	_____	_____	_____
Empirical Analysis/Methods [00s]	_____ P.S. 300	_____	_____	_____
Capstone (required): P.S. 487/488/489	_____	_____	_____	_____
Other (optional): P.S. 491/493	_____	_____	_____	_____

III. REQUIRED MINOR

Students enrolled in the Political Science General Track are required to complete a formal minor in a relevant discipline,. Minor fields available include: Africana studies, economics, geography, history, philosophy, psychology, sociology and anthropology, statistics and/or computer science, business administration, English, communication studies, international studies, leadership studies, mathematics, native American studies, religious studies, Slavic and Eastern European Studies, and the following foreign language minors (French, German, Spanish, Chinese studies, Italian studies, and Russian studies).